

DANIEL MORGAN
INDEPENDENT PANEL

28 May 2021

STATEMENT FROM THE DANIEL MORGAN INDEPENDENT PANEL

Subject to final confirmation by the Home Secretary, the Rt. Hon. Priti Patel MP, the report of the Daniel Morgan Independent Panel will be published in Parliament on Tuesday 15 June.

The Home Secretary and the Daniel Morgan Independent Panel have had a series of discussions to reach this target date.

An agreement has been reached that a small team from the Home Office will be permitted to read the report in advance of publication, under strict viewing conditions, at the premises of the Panel. As was always envisaged, the Home Secretary will be provided with a copy of the report to read before publication.

There are no redactions in the Panel's report, which is complete. In the unlikely event that any redaction is applied by the Home Secretary, this will be clearly indicated in a footnote.

The Panel now sees a clear way forward to the publication of its report.

ENDS

Note to Editors

Panel members will not be giving any interviews.